Re: Modern Slavery Act compliance statement

As the ADC Theatre is a department of the University of Cambridge, we have a legal obligation to demonstrate transparency in our supply chains. This means our suppliers must be compliant with the Modern Slavery Act (2015).

To this end, we must ask our suppliers to sign and return the below statement to operations@adctheatre.com.

Statement

You confirm that neither you, your employees, workers or organisation have been convicted of any offence involving slavery and human trafficking nor have been the subject of any investigation or enforcement proceedings regarding any such offence or alleged offence. If you use sub-contractors you agree to use your best endeavours to obtain the same confirmation from them and to ensure that your supply chains are slavery and human trafficking free. You will inform the University immediately if you become aware of any actual or suspected slavery or trafficking connected to your organisation.

You agree that the University may terminate this agreement being made with you including any purchasing order or request or activation request with immediate effect if you are in breach of this statement or if you fail to notify us of any connection to modern slavery or are subject to an investigation, enforcement proceedings or are convicted of any relevant offence.
